Connect Students, Teachers, and Parents... for Spectacular Success!

Teacher Workshop

Busy teachers want to know – in a nutshell – how to best optimize today’s technology to benefit their students. yourhomework.com’s experienced, professional trainers help teachers succeed by showing them exactly how to:

- 🍎 Post homework assignments efficiently
- 🍎 Link to Internet sites that will significantly enhance your curriculum and benefit your students
- 🍎 Integrate curriculum for maximum student learning – with minimum time investment
- 🍎 Share files with Students, Parents and other teachers
- 🍎 Hold quality and stimulating online chatroom discussions, reviews, and more
- 🍎 Communicate with school and local librarians
- 🍎 Calendar special school events
- 🍎 Email parents for optimal parent-teacher communication

Parent Workshop

Based on “No Child Left Behind” studies, students excel when parents are involved. The Parent Workshop shows parents ways to partner with teachers and schools to ensure their children’s success. In the “No More Excuses” Workshop yourhomework.com shows parents:

- 🍎 Easy access to children’s assignments
- 🍎 Assignments by email
- 🍎 Regular updates on teacher’s short-term and long-term goals for his/her class
- 🍎 Valuable gifts! An Internet Safety Kit; A Special Parenting Report “Three Things to Tell Your Children Every Day”; and more
- 🍎 Important information on issues such as “How to Maximize Classroom Computer Time,” “Educational Online Resources,” and much more
- 🍎 Step-by-step guidance on how parents can most effectively participate in their children’s school experience

“...the wave of the future!”

I would love it if all teachers put their daily assignments on the system! Thank you for all your help in establishing this homework network. It is the wave of the future!
